

ART

- Artist in Residence: At St. Anne's appointed to support A Level students along their creative journey
- Competition: Submit work for the Royal Academy Young Artists Summer Show
- Meet the artist: Termly visiting artists providing workshops to develop artistic skills and feedback concerning projects
- Artists: Online links to relevant creators to help with development of projects
- Educational trips: To London art galleries, for example, Tate Modern, Tate Britain, The Whitechapel Gallery, small independent galleries
- Workshops: Figurative life drawing and still life drawing classes
- Workshops at London galleries: To further develop creative thinking skills. The Whitechapel Gallery and Saatchi Gallery provide excellent learning outside of the classroom events.
- Resources: Access to Art2day.com
- Resources: Quarterly subscription to Aesthesia magazine
- Resources: Termly purchase of exciting and current contemporary art books, for example, Disrupted Realism by John Seed and Expressionism by Dietmar Elger
- Resources: Recommended reading list shared with students, for example, On Photography by Susan Sontag, How to write about Contemporary Art by Gilda Williams, etc.
- Resources: Provision of login for online Kerboodle resource which provides students with free access to podcasts and wider reading materials
- University Preparation: Year 13 Mock interviews for Higher Education applicants
- University Preparation: Helping to build and reviewing students portfolio for university interviews
- Exhibition: End of year exhibition at St. Anne's
- Podcast: 'Only artists' - two artists talk about their creative work - the conversation is free-flowing. Choose the pair talking