

St. Anne's Sixth Form

Get Ahead Tasks

Psychology A Level

This task will help you develop research, reading and critical thinking skills. You will learn about the key achievements and contributions of a prominent figure in psychology. The task requires you to gather information from various sources, enhancing your ability to conduct thorough and effective research.

Task 1- You need to choose one of the prominent psychologists from the below list and create a creative, colourful poster- style resume/curriculum vitae (CV) for them, as if they are applying for a psychology teaching position at your school. Ensure the design is visually appealing and the content is compelling.

- Wilhelm Wundt
- Ivan Pavlov
- B F Skinner
- Albert Bandura
- Carl Rogers
- Sigmund Freud

To assist you in creating a well- structured CV, follow the guidelines below, which outline the essential sections to include and what information to provide in each section.

- Use an image of the Psychologist
- Contact Information- fictional email/phone number/address
- Professional summary- A brief overview of the psychologists' career and contributions
- Education – Academic background, including degrees earned and institutions attended.
- Work Experience – Key positions held, particularly in academic or research settings
- Publications- List of significant books and articles.

Subject Leader: Ms F Faizal

Exam Board: AQA

St. Anne's Sixth Form

Get Ahead Tasks

Psychology A Level

- Research Interests- Areas of psychology the psychologist is known for.
- Awards and Honours- Notable recognition and awards
- Skills- Key skills relevant to a psychology teacher
- References- Important figures or colleagues (can be fictional)

You will have to present this to the class. This could be visual display and should explain why your psychologist would make a great teacher and highlight the key contributions.

Task 2- Write a small reflection on what you have learned about the psychologists and how this task helped you understand the field of psychology better.

Subject Leader: Ms F Faizal

Exam Board: AQA